

The Columbian.

VOL 27.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1892.

NO. 7

J. D. Shaffer has received the contract for furnishing patent sliding inside blinds for the new Court House.

C. E. Welliver filled his new ice house with ice from the Irondale Company's dam.

"An Irishman's Luck" at the Opera House next Wednesday night will be worth seeing. Don't miss it.

O. T. Wilson is the Republican candidate for Director of Bloom Poor District.

Noon-day services for men only are being held this week in the Lutheran church. The services are well attended by the business men.

Mr. E. R. Drinker has presented us with some very fine oranges raised on the grove of his son, Richard C. Drinker, in Florida.

Mr. I. Maier, the clothier, is having the brick work of his dwelling on Third street painted an olive color. It gives the house a beautiful appearance.

Valentine day comes on Sunday this year (14th). The day will be observed both Saturday and Monday, thus giving two days of fun for the young people.

This (Friday) evening February 12, Leland J. Powers will give his favorite impersonation "David Garrick," at the Normal School. Don't miss the opportunity to hear him.

H. G. Supplee has purchased a dwelling house on Fifth street from William Ferguson for $1,500. Mr. Supplee will make some improvements in the property and occupy it after the first of April.

Mrs. Lucy Brockway has bound files of THE COLUMBIAN from 1866 to 1875 that she will dispose of at a very reasonable price. Any information concerning the same can be obtained of her, or by inquiring at this office.

J. G. Wells, optician, of Bloomsburg, will be at Curry's Hotel at Centralia on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 16 and 17. Eyes examined free of charge. All glasses guaranteed. Will be at Centralia about every four weeks.

The musical farce comedy "An Irishman's Luck" will appear at the Opera House on Wednesday evening, 17th inst. It is by the popular playwright Will H. Powers, and is brim full of funny sayings, laughable situations, and good music. Reserved seats at Dentler's.

A delightful party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Wirt at their handsome home on Fifth street, last Tuesday night. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers, Mrs. Santee and Mr. Paul of Hazleton, and Miss Royerston of Scranton. Music was furnished by the Drifton orchestra of five pieces.

The Bloom ferry is in condition for crossing every day. Only a few years ago, the ferry would be closed until about the middle of March. For several winters past there has been an interruption of only a few weeks. The popular ferryman Francis Lafontaine is always ready to take teams over at any hour of the day or night.

Our citizens should become aroused in reference to the near approach of the day for electing township officers. On Tuesday next, February 16, we cast our ballots and decide who shall use our taxes for the next year. Every citizen should go to the polls and vote. Our best, and most prosperous business men should be elected to fill the offices. Those who are successful with their own business ought to be trusted to do business for others. Don't be misled by the wily politicians.

Ice is now being cut from the ponds at East Mahanoy, ten inches thick. The ponds belong to a man named Ross, who leases them to the Knickerbocker Ice Company, of Philadelphia. This company has already hauled over 8,000 tons this season, and will cut about 4,000 tons more. The ice is cut by means of an ice plow that cuts about five inches through the ice. Cross cuts are then made which makes the cakes uniform to the size of 22 x 28 inches. The plow which is drawn by a horse makes four furrows at a time. It seems like a romance to state that leaving Bloomsburg, where there is no ice, and after two hours ride to come to a small lake covered with ice ten inches in thickness.

If you wish to have healthy chickens always keep on hand a package of Bull's-Head Poultry Powder. It is a sure cure for all ailments to which the feathery tribe is heir. Price 25 cents.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

William Kramer is spoken of as a candidate for President of the Town Council.

The Poor Director business is becoming more complicated. Geo. W. Kelchner of Scott and F. D. Dentler of Bloomsburg are both running as independent candidates.

Next Tuesday is election day. It will be the last election in this state under the old law. March 1st the Baker bill goes into effect. How long it will last cannot be told now. There are some good things in it, and some things that ought to be changed. It should be given a fair trial before it is condemned.

W. A. Kile, committeeman from Sugarloaf, voted for Buckingham last Saturday. After the meeting he was met by an ex-representative of this county and told that he was a "spotted man." Has it come to this in this county, that a man cannot exercise his own free will politically without being threatened?

William Krickbaum will vote for Cleveland if he gets into the National Democratic Convention. Cleveland is undoubtedly the choice of the democrats of this county. There are two delegates from this district, and Mr. Krickbaum must secure four more votes from either Northumberland, Montour or Sullivan counties to send him as a delegate. There are 16 conferees in this district and it requires 9 to nominate. Columbia county has five.

One of the anomalies of the committee meeting last Saturday was that Mr. Krickbaum was selected as district delegate to the National convention by a vote of 16 to 15, and Senator Herring was recommended for delegate at large by a vote of 19 to 12. Mr. Krickbaum calls his vote a "peoples' victory." How about Herring's vote?

Good men ought to be elected to the township offices next Tuesday, and those who are elected ought to serve. Every man who is called upon by the community to serve in a public capacity even though there is no compensation in the office, ought to accept. It is a duty we all owe to society to help conduct public affairs when asked to do so by our friends and neighbors.

Thomas Boran came up from the lower end of the county last Saturday as a member of the Standing Committee, and was supposed to be for Buckingham as delegate to the National Convention, but at the committee meeting he voted for Krickbaum, and when he went home he carried with him a commission as Deputy Sheriff, and an election as delegate to the state convention. On Saturday night he kept himself dark for fear that some of his colleagues from the lower end would punch his head.

OBSERVER.

ORANGEVILLE.

In the Statement of Finances of Col. Co., our people seem somewhat puzzled in regard to the amount of State tax paid by Orange.

We notice the amount paid by the whole County is $4345.93 of which Orange pays almost one half, $2012.06. In the Co., tax Bloom pays $4342.03 and Orange $949.46. More than four times as much is paid by Bloom than Orange, while in State Orange pays almost twice as much as Bloom. If we understand it, the State tax is paid by Corporations and people having money at interest.

Our corporations in Orange are in fact nothing. Then we are to suppose that the amount is raised from the money at interest. Now with the manufacturing establishments and people of wealth, (who are likely to have money at interest) living in Bloomsburg, can it be possible that this is a fact or is it a mistake in printing?

A TAX PAYER.

[The county statement is printed from plates and it is therefore impossible to correct the figures in the paper. The state tax for Orange should be $212.06 instead of $2012.06. Also under the head of assessor's pay the last column in Mt. Pleasant should be $14.75 instead of $44.75.]

People who use arsenical preparations for their complexion, do so at the risk of their lives. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is guaranteed free from any injurious drug, and is, therefore, the safest as well as the most powerful blood medicine in the world. It makes the skin clear.

NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES.

We desire to call especial attention of our people to the coming of that wonderful impersonator and entertainer, Mr. Leland T. Powers, who will enact the play of "David Garrick" on Friday evening at the Normal School. Mr. Powers is without an equal in the United States. He presents the ten characters of David Garrick so rapidly, so forcibly, and yet so easily that if one were to sit before him with closed eyes, he would think an entire company of ten persons was presenting the play. He disarms all criticism. He appears in this famous dramatic monologue as the master of a rare art. He so completely and instantaneously changes his face, voice and carriage and whole bodily appearance to suit each character as he takes it, that the illusion is perfect, and he does all this without change of costume.

The diagram is now open for this unusual entertainment, at W. H. Brooke & Co.'s Store.

Union Revival Meetings.

Great crowds are attending the Union Revival services this week at the Opera House. At the evening services there was hardly standing room. The services of the week began Sunday morning with a meeting for Sunday school officers and teachers at 8 o'clock, about one hundred men and women were in attendance. Then followed a union meeting of all the Sunday schools from 9 to 10 o'clock. In the afternoon at 2:30 a meeting was held for all between the ages of 16 and 30. The attendance was very large at this meeting. In the evening the house was overcrowded and over-flowing meetings held at the Presbyterian and Methodist churches. Monday a noon-day meeting was commenced in the Lutheran church from 12 to 12:30. This meeting has been well attended every day by business men only. A morning and afternoon service has been held in the Opera House, at 7:30. Thus far about 100 have expressed a desire to lead a Christian life hereafter. The meetings have been the means of quickening the spirits of the christian people. Sunday evening will probably be the last of the services in the Opera House.

REUBEN WILSON.

Millville has lost one of her most respected citizens in the death of Reuben Wilson, which occurred last Friday. He would have been eighty-six years of age, had he lived eight days longer. He was born in Montour county, and lived there until he was a man. His wife Sarah, was an Eve, and they were married January 27, 1831. She died in September 1878. He was a member of the Society of Friends, and always wore the plain Quaker garb. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at Millville. The remains were taken to the church and after a silent meeting of an hour the burial took place in the cemetery. The surviving children are Thomas Wilson, Mrs. A. P. Young, Mrs. Harriet Eck, Sarah Wilson, of Greenwood twp., Anna married and residing in Chester county, and Mrs. Mary Pilkinton who resides in Iowa.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

Next week Sunday School Institutes will be held as follows.

Tuesday evening, February 16, Centre township, Fowlersville M. E. church.

Wednesday afternoon and evening, February 17, Main township Mainville M. E. church.

Thursday afternoon and evening, February 18, Beaver township, Harger's Reformed and Lutheran church.

Rev. Heilman of Bloomsburg will lend his aid in Centre and Beaver and Prof. J. A. Sprengle, State Secretary is expected at Main and Beaver.

A. W. SPEAR, County Secretary.

Church Bazar.

The Bazar or church fair to be held by the Ladies' Guild in the Entertainment room of the New Parish House during next week will have many attractions for young and old. Articles of all kinds will be on exhibition on which visitors can bid if they desire and all articles will be sold to the highest and best bidder on last two evenings of the fair. The proceeds will be used to finish and furnish the new building, and as everyone will get full value for their money, the ladies should be well patronized. All articles to be sold have been contributed by manufacturers and others desiring to advertise their goods.

To create an appetite, and give tone to the digestive apparatus, use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETING.

The members of the Standing Committee met at the Exchange Hotel last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of choosing a person to be selected by the district as delegate to the National Convention. All the members were present, or with substitutes. The first contest was in reference to the committeeman A. B. Gibbons of Sugarloaf. Mr. Gibbons had given a written substitution to D. B. Cole of Benton, and both were present to claim seats. Chairman Townsend appointed Barney Doyle of North Conyngham, J. H. Mercer of Bloomsburg, and Wm. Smith of Madison a committee to determine who should be seated. The committee reported in favor of Mr. Cole because of having a written substitution, signed by Mr. Gibbons and witnessed. The convention however rejected the report by a vote of 14 to 16, Mr. Townsend not voting. Mr. Gibbons was therefore seated. Next came a motion to eject all persons not members of committee, and to lock the door—upon call of roll the vote proved a tie; a second roll being called resulted in closing the doors, by a vote of 14 to 16.

The names of Wm. Krickbaum and Robert Buckingham were put before the committee and resulted as follows:

This resolution was passed unanimously. The following resolution was then offered:

Resolved, that the delegates this day named, to represent Columbia County in the State Convention are instructed to support William Krickbaum of Bloomsburg as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago on June 21st, 1892, and passed by a vote of 21 to 10.

The names of Senator Grant Herring, and Robert R. Little, Esq., were placed before the committee as Candidates for Delegates-at-large to the National Committee. Upon call of roll the vote stood Herring, 12, Little 12.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, by the Standing Committee of Columbia County in Convention assembled that we instruct our Delegates to the State Convention to vote for and use all honorable means to elect Hon. Grant Herring one of the delegates-at-large to the National Convention believing that Columbia County with her large and steady democratic majority at all times for the Democratic Candidates is entitled to representation at large in the National Convention.

A. B. CATHCART, P. M.

Some unprincipled person claiming to be a democrat has tried to circulate the report in Sugarloaf township that the Committeemen of Bloom township were not supporting the nominees for Poor Directors. We are requested to state that this report is a base falsehood. The Committeemen are for the ticket nominated and are endeavoring to see that the old board, who have served but one term are re-elected.

Which Do You Say?
When I was young, for Sunday's feast,
We used to have potatoes
And chicken fixings, beans and beets,
And with them, oft—tomatoes.

But yesterday a gourmand gray,
A pig from head to fat toes,
Informed me that of vegetables,
He much preferred—tomatoes.

For other folks I wouldn't care,
Although my words were not those—
They proper deemed; but she I love—
She always says—tomatoes.

To fall in aught that she expects—
Intolerable the thought grows,
I tremble at: "Now, give me, please,
Tomato—tomato—tomatoes."

She Saw Him Off.
Down in Texas, several years ago, a middle aged man was convicted of horse stealing in a regular court and sent to the penitentiary for a long term. He was duly sentenced and the sheriff fixed a day upon which he should be taken to the State prison. The day arrived and the official, with a string of convicts handcuffed together, was at the station waiting for the train.

While the group sat in the depot a little old woman in black, with a face in which the fingers of sorrow had pinched great furrows, appeared at the door. She looked at the string of prisoners intently then a light of recognition came into her face. She stepped over to the group of unfortunates and laid her hand on the arm of a big, coarse fellow with a heavy, red mustache. The man turned and looked at the little woman.

"Mother!" he exclaimed. That was all. Big tears came into his eyes. They did not stay there, but crowded one another out to chase down the rough face, red now with shame. They ran into the big mustache and off at the ends of it. Then he recovered himself. The little woman was not crying—people sometimes get beyond that.

"What—are—you—doing—here?" the big man sobbed.

"I came, my son," said the little woman with the furrows in her face, "to see you off."

"To—to see me off?" The man was dazed.

"Yes, Henry. When you were such a little boy that you had never been out of the home yard alone I went to the gate with you the first day you ever went to the store by yourself. I watched you the three blocks of the distance until your chubby feet carried you into the little country store that your father kept. Then when you were 6 and started for school, I went to the gate with you again, and told you how to act in the school-room. You went away on a visit when you were 10, and I went to the depot with you and your uncle, then. And I kissed you goodbye before the cars started."

How the tears were flowing from that big man's eyes!

"Yes," and the little woman sighed a bit. "Then you got to be 16 and wanted to go off to St. Louis. It was hard to part with you, but we did it—your father and I—and I went to the little depot with you again and kissed you again. You remember, don't you?"

The other prisoners were interested, now, and the sheriff himself was taking in every word.

"Then you were married, Henry. I went to see you bound by law and God to that sweet, dear Mary who is now—"

"Don't—don't—don't," almost shrieked the big man.

"Yes," the little woman went on, unheedingly, "and now you are going away again, and I must kiss you. The train is coming, Henry; kiss your old mother."

The sheriff had not moved. Ordinarily he would have told the man to hurry on. But he waited now. The big man bowed and tried to hide his manacled hands.

"Kiss me, Henry," the old lady repeated. The head moved lower, and the big red mustache almost covered the little face with the furrows in it. Then the gang started for the train.

As the cars began to move out, the little woman stood on the platform. She caught a glimpse of her big son through the car window. She waved a little black bordered handkerchief at him.

"Goodbye, Henry," she called out feebly, and then, through force of the habit formed when she sent her little son to school, she murmured:

"Be—a good boy."

One of that gang of prisoners told me afterward that the little scene in the depot was a greater punishment to each man there than his respective term of imprisonment.—Detroit Free Press.

In the Eyes of Youth.
It is told of Bishop Doane, of Albany, that while dining recently at the house of one of his friends he was pleased to observe that he was the object of marked attention from the small son of his host, whose eyes were riveted upon him. After dinner the bishop approached the boy and said:

"Well, my young friend, you seem to be interested in me. Do you find that I am all right?"

"Yes, sir," returned the boy, with a glance at the bishop's knees, "you're all right; but, say, won't your mamma let you wear pants yet?"

The Cow.
Teacher (to Mickey)—Now, Mickey, you read the lesson to me first and then tell me, with the book closed, what you read.

Mickey (reading)—See the cow. Can the cow run? Yes, the cow can run. Can the cow run as swiftly as the horse? No, the horse runs swifter than the cow. (Closing up his book to tell what he has read). Get onto the cow. Kin her jig steps run? Be'cher! life she kin run. Kin de cow do up de horse a runnin'? Naw, de cow ain't in it wid de horse.—Life.

LARGEST OF WHALES.

Boys—An' did yer ever see a whale? Old Timer—A whale, is it? Why, when I was in the Mediterranean, in '65, aboard the Whopper, our lookout cried land ahead! an' sure enough right over on our harbor side there was an island as no one ever seed afore, an' which our skipper said warn't down on none o' his charts. We hove to right in the eye of a bitin' wind an' six of us was sent out in the skipper's gig to make observations. We made direck for the island an' landed an' wandered about for an entire mornin' without diskooverin no signs o' hanimal life or vegetation. We got chilled through an' purceeded to build a fire which we had scarcely lighted when the island begun to squirm an' to sink as if by magic. To make a long story short what we took for an island was a whale; I guess he couldn't stand the hot fire in the small of his back, so he sank to the bottom of the ocean. We all escaped exceptin' our cox'n, poor Tommy Bilge; he fell into the hole the fire made in the whale's back an' was drowned. (Contentiously) Have I seen whales?—Life.

Lee and Wise at Appomattox.

Colonel Charles Mitchell, who was adjutant general on General Lee's staff, tells an interesting little story of General Lee and the surrender at Appomattox in the Norristown Times.

Wise came riding down the road furiously to where General Lee and his staff were grouped. He was splashed with mud from head to heels. There were great splashes of mud dried and caked upon his face. Addressing General Lee, he asked, in a theatrical voice:

"Is it true, General Lee, that you have surrendered?"

"Yes, General Wise, it is true."

"I wish, then, to ask you one question. What is going to become of my brigade, General Lee, and what is going to become of me?"

General Lee looked at the splashed warrior for a full minute and then said calmly and in a low tone:

"General Wise, go and wash your face."

Great Fun in Kansas.

The Kansas newspapers are having a sort of harvest festival. It has gone so far up to date:

And every cabbage nods his head.—Lawrence Journal.

The Rev. Mr. Sam Jones's Style.

"Some of you are here to-night just to listen to what Sam Jones has got to say about this town. You are scared to open your mouths on the streets, you little puppies! I'll call you dogs, but you are so little. Your town is made up of pusillanimous cowards. The state of things here shows that. God helping me, I'll put a stop to this. We will form a law and order party, and we'll see the law enforced here, or blood will be spilt and the ground torn up for two miles around. Here, I am going to give Rome an airing. Now if you have anything to tell me, don't say it to me and then don't want it to be known that you told me. You blab eyed fool, don't be such a coward."—From a recent sermon.

A Victim of Exact Language.

New Clerk (to old clerk)—Didn't you tell me that time went on in this establishment during vacation?

Old Clerk—Yes.

New Clerk—Well, they've docked me for the two weeks I was away.

Old Clerk—That's all right. I didn't say that salaries went on, did I?—

No Profit There.

Superintendent—How is this, Murphy? Ten cents all you took in on your round trip?

Conductor—Yes, sir. I struck an orphan asylum picnic. They went down and back with me, and every one of 'em, savin' the woman in charge, was under age.—Harper's Bazar.

BLAINE, HE WITHDRAWS.
He Will Not Be a Candidate for the Presidency.

FORMAL LETTER TO THAT EFFECT.

Mr. Blaine Writes to Chairman Clarkson that His Name Will Not go Before the Republican Convention for the Nomination—No Reason Given.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—James G. Blaine has for the second time declined to be a candidate for the presidency of the United States. This time, as when he wrote his first letter of declination to Chairman Jones, from Florence, Italy in the spring of 1888, he declines in the face of what many Republicans and more Democrats believe to be an almost certain nomination by the Republican Convention.

Mr. Blaine's letter to Chairman Clarkson of the Republican National Committee was written Saturday. It was made public last night. It reads:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 6, 1892.

"Hon. J. S. Clarkson, Chairman of the National Republican Committee:

"MY DEAR SIR—I am not a candidate for the presidency, and my name will not go before the National Convention for the nomination. I make this announcement in due season.

"To those who have tendered me their support, I owe sincere thanks, and am most grateful for their confidence. They will, I am sure, make an earnest effort in the approaching contest, which is rendered especially important by reason of the industrial and financial policies of the government being at stake.

"The popular decision on these issues is of great moment, and will be of far-reaching consequence.

Very sincerely yours,
[Signed] "JAMES G. BLAINE."

DEATH OF SIR MORELL MACKENZIE.

The Eminent English Physician a Victim of Influenza.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—Sir Morell Mackenzie died here at 10 o'clock last night of syncope, consequent upon an attack of influenza.

Sir Morell Mackenzie, M. D. (London), was born at Leytonstone, Essex, in 1837, and educated at the London Hospital Medical College, Paris and Vienna.

He founded the Hospital for Diseases of the Throat, Golden Square, in 1863, and in the same year obtained the Jacksonian prize from the Royal College of Surgeons for his essay on diseases of the larynx.

Dr. Morell Mackenzie was in attendance on the late German Emperor Frederick during his last illness. In recognition of his services to her son-in-law Queen Victoria conferred a knighthood on Dr. Mackenzie in 1888. Shortly before his death the Emperor Frederick conferred the Grand Cross of the Hohenzollern Order, with the star of the same order.

FORAKER MEN DOWNCAST.

Sherman's Ohio Followers are Wild With Joy.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 8.—The Blaine letter has made the Sherman faction wild with joy, for to them it means a clear field for President Harrison.

The Foraker Republicans who were planning to use Blaine to accomplish the defeat of Harrison in revenge for his part in the recent Senatorial contest, are downcast, but they argue that the letter is unimportant, is not a positive refusal to run, and that none of Blaine's friends will desist because of it.

Some of the Foraker men indicate that they may now go to Alger.

A WILL IN A SQUIRREL'S NEST.

Young George Applebee Is Made a Wealthy Man by the Find.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 4.—The will of Abram Mosher, a Dark Hollow farmer, who died last summer, leaving an estate valued at $75,000, has been found by two hunters in an old hollow tree. It composed part of the nest of a pair of squirrels that the hunters were after.

By the will, George Applebee, a young man who had lived with and took care of Mr. Mosher for some years, inherits his property.

Eighteen Burned on a Train.

BUCHAREST, Feb. 9.—A first-class carriage, attached to an express train, bound for Braila, was burned and eighteen passengers, who were asleep when the fire broke out, perished in the flames, the doors of the carriage being locked.

A Kiss For a Quarter.

NOVEL DEVICE FOR OBTAINING MONEY
AT A CHURCH SOCIAL.

A lively church row is in progress at Burns, a little town about twenty miles from Buffalo, all growing out of a new money-raising scheme introduced at a church social held in the Lutheran Church parlors by the ladies of the congregation. The church is heavily in debt and they advertised a social in the church to raise money to pay the preacher and buy some coal. The men of the congregation had all been seen and informed that the women had a big surprise for them. They were out in full force and fairly packed the rooms.

Across one end of the room was a curtain. For an hour the guests chatted after the old-fashioned church social style. Then the curtain was suddenly withdrawn. There in a row stood six of the prettiest women in the congregation, blushing and smiling, each bearing upon her bosom a placard, on which were the words: "You may kiss me for 25 cents."

It was fifteen minutes before the device began to work, but when it did the silver quarters fairly showered into the young ladies. Old and young eagerly rushed to the front to exchange coins for kisses. The show lasted only a short time when the curtain was again drawn and the storm burst. The women were jealous of their husbands, and a dozen or more family fights were started at once.

Soon it was announced that the women would pose again in a short time.

Then the angry women tore down the curtains and blew out all lights. A scrambling for the doors followed, and for over two hours the church members gossiped and fought on the sidewalk. They finally dispersed and a factional church fight is the result.

Can You Eat

Heartily, with relish, and without distress afterward? If not, we recommend you Hood's Sarsaparilla, which creates a good appetite and so invigorates the stomach and bowels that the food is properly digested and all its nutriment assimilated.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, effective, but do not cause pain or gripe. Be sure to get Hood's.

A teacher told her pupils that she once struggled in vain to solve an example. One night she went to bed thinking about it and dreamed it out.

"Teacher," said one of her boys the next day, "I tried your way last night. I went to sleep thinking about a question, but when I fell asleep I forgot all about it?"

"Mary has a little lamb—its fleece is white as snow," but it wants Bulls-Head-Horse and cattle Powder to make it strong, you know. That it does. Price 25 cts. per package of one pound.

But storm or calm the rudder is
A stern necessity.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Fool and His Money Soon Part

How true some of those old sayings are. A friend of mine paid a traveling quack $50 to cure him of Scrofula, from which he had suffered two years. He gave him a bottle of stuff which only aggravated the disease. When he went to consult him the second time, the quack had left for parts unknown. Upon learning the circumstances I recommended Sulphur Bitters. Five bottles cured him.—Editor Journal and Courier. 2-5-21.

The more one gets into language the queerer it seems. People talk of "breaking a dollar." Now, a dollar note can't well be broken, though it may be torn, and as to breaking a silver or gold piece, let anybody try it without a hammer.

14 MONTHS IN BED. "Mrs. Kelly requests me to write you in regard to what S. S. S. has done for her son, who has been sick so long with an abscess. She had two physicians, and they did everything for him that they could and he didn't improve. For fourteen months and five days he was in bed and not dressed. Some one recommended your S. S. S., and after he had taken two or three bottles he began to improve. He continued until he had taken eleven bottles, and to-day he is as well as ever. The boy is fourteen years old, and Mrs. Kelly lives next door to me, and I am well acquainted with the facts of the case." C. W. HODGKINS, Postmaster, East Lamoine, Maine. Swift's Specific has a wonderful effect on children and young people. It should be given to every child who has any blood trouble or blood taint. It drives out the poison and poisonous germs, and enables nature to develop the child. Our treatise on the blood and skin will be mailed free to all applicants.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYES, 820 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. mar-6-1y.

Not One in Ten

Of the people you meet from day to day has perfectly pure, healthy blood. The hereditary scrofulous taint afflicts the large majority of people, while many others acquire diseases from impure air, improper food and wrong indulgences. Hence the imperative necessity for a reliable blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which eradicates every impurity, and gives to the blood vitality and health. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, humors, boils, pimples, and all other affections caused by impurities or poisonous germs in the blood. All that is asked for Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it be given a fair trial.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 2-5-21.

ANOTHER CHARLIE ROSS.

Bold Kidnapping of a Farmer's Son
Near Bedford, N. Y.

POUND RIDGE, N. Y., Feb. 3.—One of the boldest cases of kidnapping ever perpetrated in this State was committed late yesterday afternoon, and as a result the residents in this section are in a state of the greatest excitement. Charles Waterbury is one of the wealthiest and most prominent men in this section. He resides in Pound Ridge, but only half of his farm lies in this township, the other lying in Long Ridge, Conn. He has a wife and two children—Ward, eight years of age, and a younger son, four years of age. Ward attended District School No. 1 in Pound Ridge, of which Miss Stead is the teacher. The distance from the Waterbury home to the schoolhouse is about three miles.

This afternoon his eight-year-old son Ward was returning from school with a companion about his own age when he was stopped in the road by three men, who seized and carried him to a carriage close by. When evening came and the boy did not return, his parents became alarmed, and Mr. Waterbury went out to seek him, but to no purpose. When he got home he found his nephew, Charles Waterbury, waiting for him with a letter which the nephew said had been given him by a strange man with instructions to deliver it to Charles P. Waterbury. Mr. Waterbury opened the letter, which read as follows:

"Mr. C. P. Waterbury, Meet us with $5,000 at Jim Miller's bridge, Bedford, you can have your son Tuesday night at twelve o'clock come alone and avoid bloodshed for we will kill the boy before we give him up without the money."
"River Hoys."
"Earth is our stopping place hell is our home."

THE KIDNAPPERS FOILED.

Ward Waterbury Returned Home and Abductors Arrested.

POUND RIDGE, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Ward F. Waterbury, the kidnapped boy, was brought home between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning by Lewis M. Close, a clam digger, living in the neighboring town of Stanwich.

On arriving home Ward said that he was enticed away from the school house about four o'clock Monday, by two men who finally carried him "miles and miles away," to a little house which he could not well describe. The house had shutters on all the windows and he could not see out. Here they kept him until after midnight Tuesday night, when they made him get up and then they carried him off a long distance and left him in front of a house, (which proved to be Mr. Close's) and told him to knock and he would be taken in.

GREENWICH, Conn., Feb. 4.—Through information given by William McCann of Stanwich, his father John McCann and Samuel Southerland, a farm laborer, have been arrested on a charge of complicity in the abduction of Ward F. Waterbury.

Charles E. Waterbury was caught later by the sheriff's posse. All three were arranged here and held in $5,000 bail each, Waterbury and McCann for the Superior Court at Bridgeport, February 14.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN MEMPHIS.

Several Persons Believed to be Killed.
Loss Probably $1,000,000.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 2.—A destructive fire started here in the building of the Bruce-Berne Hat Company, at 230 Main street, at 9:30 o'clock last night. In three-quarters of an hour the entire structure collapsed, and the flames spread to the Langstaff building, which toppled over into the ruins.

At midnight the fire was beyond control and gaining rapidly on the firemen. The fire leaped across Monroe street to Luthermann's Hotel. Reaching Union street it turned east, and reaching Third street started north again. On Third street the Lilly carriage factory and other buildings were destroyed. While the flames were consuming the carriage factory a man appeared on the roof and leaped to the ground. His body was crushed into a shapeless mass.

It was reported that several others went down with the roof of Luthermann's Hotel. The loss will probably reach $1,000,000.

Big Fire at Trenton, N. J.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 4.—A fire in the braiding department of John A. Roebeling's Sons' mill to-night caused damage to the amount of $150,000, destroying part of the building.

About 600 hands are thrown out of employment by the fire, the origin of which is unknown.

A Story of Beecher.

A good story of Henry Ward Beecher is told by Whitelaw Reid. "When Mr. Beecher had avowed his faith in the advantages of having women speak in church, and at the next prayer meeting a prosy sister had taken up all the time to no purpose, and at the next the same, and at the fourth had been, if possible, more tedious and oppressive than ever before, Mr. Beecher rose, with solemn air, as he took her seat, and observed in argumentative tones: 'Nevertheless, brethren and sisters, I believe in women speaking in prayer meeting.'"—N. Y. Ledger.

A New Stove.

One of the most recent novelties is a house stove introduced in England. The grate is swung on trunnions and can be reversed. After fresh coal has been added at the top, the reversal is made, and the green coal is thus brought to the bottom in an easy manner, to answer the purpose in question, namely, the gases from the coal, passing upward by means of this arrangement through the red portion of the fire, previously at the bottom, are almost consumed before reaching the chimney.

The Brooklyn Grocer's Murderer Dies in the Chair at Sing Sing.

SING SING, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Charles Melvaine, who murdered grocer Christian Luca in Brooklyn, N. Y., on the night of August 11, 1890, while burglarizing Luca's house, was executed in the prison to-day by electric shock.

This was the sixth electrocution under the new law, and was the first one to which reporters were legally admitted, Gov. Flower having signed the bill last week.

A Poor Widow's Son Abducted.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 8.—John Kane, the eight-year-old son of a woman living in Wiles street, was noticed from home Saturday evening by an unknown man and no trace of him has yet been found. The mother is in poor circumstance. Her husband left her about two years ago and since then she has not heard from him. The police believe he is the abductor, but Mrs. Kane says the description of the man given by a boy who saw him does not correspond to the appearance of Mr. Kane.

Fatal Explosion at Newark, N. J.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 3.—An alcohol condenser exploded on the second floor of the factory of J. Rummell & Co., at the corner of Dawson and Johnson streets, shortly before 5 o'clock last night. Oscar Leurich, a plumber, and his helper, Albert Anderson, were killed. It is thought that a boy, who was working with them, is buried in the ruins. The bodies of Leurich and his helper were found on the ground floor, burned to a crisp.

No More Star Chamber Executions.

ALBANY, Feb. 4.—The Governor has signed the amendment to the Electrical Execution act allowing the warden of a State prison to select six reputable members of the press to witness executions.

Texas Sentence Commuted.

ALBANY, Feb. 5.—Gov. Flower has commuted the sentence in the case of Nicola Trezza, who is now in Sing Sing under sentence of death, to imprisonment for the term of his natural life.

"NO MORE DOCTORS FOR ME!"
They said I was consumptive, sent me to Florida, told me to keep quiet, no excitement, and no tennis. Just think of it. One day I found a little book called "Guide to Health," by Mrs. Pinkham, and in it I found out what ailed me. So I wrote to her, got a lovely reply, told me just what to do, and I am in splendid health now.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S Vegetable Compound conquers all these weaknesses and ailments so prevalent with the sex, and restores perfect health.

All Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00.

For the cure of Kidney Complaints, either sex, the Compound has no rival.

Mrs. Pinkham freely answers letters of inquiry. Enclose stamp for reply.

Send two 2-cent stamps for Mrs. Pinkham's beautiful 88-page illustrated book, entitled "GUIDE TO HEALTH AND ETIQUETTE." It contains a volume of valuable information. It has saved lives, and may save yours.

MANY ROASTED ALIVE.

A New York Hotel Full of Guests Burned to the Ground.

TERRIBLE SCENE AT THE RUINS.

The Hotel Royal on Sixth Avenue Destroyed—Over One Hundred and Fifty Persons in the House—Number of Victims Yet Unknown—Eight Recovered.

New York, Feb. 8.—The five story Hotel Royal, at the southeast corner of Fortieth street and Sixth avenue, caught fire at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, and in less than two hours was a heap of ruins with a large number of its inmates cremated in the death trap.

The building burned as if it had been so much straw. At 2.55 o'clock a pillar of flame shot up through the elevator shaft of the house. In less than twelve minutes the fire had spread out into every corridor, and was stealing its way under the doors along the passages. Five minutes the windows in the structure were lighted up like one of those toy houses which children illuminate with the stroke of a match. And the Hotel Royal itself was a toy house. Five minutes more and it was covered with flame as with a garment.

According to the statement of the hotel officials, there were about 155 guests in the hotel at the time. The cause of the fire is uncertain.

The chief of the house said yesterday that one of the cooks may have left the grease pot on the stove, and that it boiled over. The burning fat, in that event could have set fire to the floor and wall, or blazed up to the ceiling. The fire may have started in this way. Engineer Harding is positive that his furnace and boiler were in good order, and that no burning coals escaped. The boiler blew up an hour and a half after the fire broke out.

There were 200 rooms in the house and all but four were occupied.

So rapidly did the flames spread that when the sleeping guests were awakened many found all escape cut off and some in desperation jumped from the windows to certain death on the pavement below, while others rushed madly into the flames and either perished or were horribly burned before assistance came.

A large force of firemen were at work all the morning and streams were kept playing on the ruins throughout the day.

Richard Meares, proprietor of the hotel, and his wife were both badly burned, and were taken with many others to Bellevue Hospital.

At 10 o'clock this morning eight bodies had been recovered. About sixty are still missing. Eighty-one persons were rescued alive or accounted for.

SIXTEEN BODIES TAKEN OUT.

Still Finding Victims of the Hotel Royal Fire.

New York, Feb. 9.—When the firemen and laborers will finish their gruesome task among the charred timbers that mark where stood the Hotel Royal is still a matter of pure guessing. As the search among the ruins goes on more bodies, or parts of what was once living humanity are brought to light.

Before daylight this morning four more bodies had been taken out. The list before day dawned had been swelled to sixteen, and yet what it is supposed will prove the most fruitful spot for the searchers has not yet had a pick stuck into it. That part is where the elevator shaft was. A heap of bricks, twisted iron and half charred rubbish marks the spot, and beneath the little mound of ruins the firemen expect to find close to a dozen bodies.

Of the sixteen bodies taken out only six have thus far been identified.

TO REPEAL THE LAW.

An Assemblyman Who Has Seen Enough of Electrocution.

ALBANY, Feb. 9.—Assemblyman Stein, after witnessing the execution at Sing Sing prison of Charles McElvaine yesterday, hurried back to Albany and introduced an amendment to the criminal code repealing the law providing for the execution of criminals by electricity. The bill provides:

Section 508 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of New York, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: The punishment of death must in every case be inflicted by hanging the convict by the neck until he is dead.

Nothing contained in this act shall apply to a crime committed at any time between the 1st day of January, 1889, and the day when this act takes effect. Such crime must be punished according to the provisions of law existing when the crime was committed.

This act shall take effect on the first day of June, 1892, and shall apply to all convictions for the crimes punishable by death committed on or after that date.

$40,000 in a Miser's Satchel.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Charles Farnham, died in this city a few days ago in supposed poverty. He refused to have a doctor, because he claimed he could not afford the expense.

Saturday a relative called for Farnham's valise. It was opened and found packed full of pieces of dirty underwear, which were rolled in wads. When they were undone they were found to contain greenbacks, gold and silver, government bonds, and other securities amounting to about $40,000.

Hallinger Gets a Stay.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

More Than Satisfied.

JOHN M. CLARK, BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 12, '90.

For over twelve years my son has been afflicted with spasms; he would have one every two weeks until about six months ago, then once a week. We took him to a number of first-class physicians and we tried everything and any number of remedies without deriving any encouragement in his case, and had commenced to despair of ever being able to cure him at all when we heard of Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic and decided to give it a trial. The result has more than satisfied me. It is better than three months since he commenced to take this Nerve Tonic and he has never been sick since. Please accept our most sincere thanks, for we feel that you have not only cured him of a great affliction but have saved his life as well as we do not think he would have lived long in the condition he was in before he commenced taking your valuable remedy.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8, 1892.

"It is another of Blaine's schemes to get Mr. Harrison in an awkward position" said a republican Senator who is not a very ardent admirer of the Secretary of State, speaking of the coming of Commissioners or the Canadian government to try to negotiate a treaty of reciprocity. "Blaine", continued the Senator, has always professed a willingness to negotiate, but I happen to know that he is opposed to giving Canada even the slightest trade concessions, no matter how much she is willing to give us in exchange. He brought the Canadian Commissioners here on a fool's errand last year, as you may remember, and Mr. Harrison, unwilling to delude them with any false hopes, sent them home so abruptly and curtly that many people regarded it as a snub administered to the representatives of a friendly government. But Mr. Harrison knew that it was useless to open negotiations with them that were bound to result in nothing. What Blaine's idea is now I do not know, but I feel certain that he is responsible for the coming of the Commissioners again at this time, and that his object is in some manner to trick the President." No one here seems to have any idea that the Canadians will accomplish anything by coming here.

The acting Secretary of the Treasury - Foster is here, but he has not resumed his official duties - in an official communication to the Ways and Means Committee has acknowledged that the expenditures of the Government, notwithstanding the hanging up of appropriations that should have been paid during that time, exceeded the income during the six months ending December 31, last. That report will not be printed in republican papers.

Representative Fithian's resolution instructing the House Ways and Means Committee to report at an early day a bill placing on the free list all sorts of agricultural implements, is a highly meritorious attempt to allviate the burdens of a most deserving class, but before the committee could obey the instructions, should the resolution be adopted, other bills would have to be reported and passed. It would hardly be practicable for instance to put agricultural implements on the free list while the raw material of their component parts - lumber and metal - is taxed. The free entrance of raw material should precede that of the manufactured article into which it enters, according to the ideas of those whose long study of the question entitle them to recognition.

Many pleasures in life are due to good health and good looks. Manner's Double Extract Sarsaparilla will bring pleasures as it increases the appetite, relieves all disorders arising from bad blood such as Headache, Constipation, Boils and pimples which when driven out of the system brings good looks. Manner's Double Extract Sarsaparilla can be found at all drug stores also at Moyer Bro's.

A lamp chimney is a small thing, (however important) and it is strange a dealer will so belittle himself as to substitute an imitation for the genuine "Pearl-top" chimney, because it costs him a few cents per dozen less. Yet he does this—does it every day. We are blamed when these imitation things "don't work" and break. Every "Pearl-top" chimney bears a label for your protection. Look for it.

"Pearl-glass" (chimneys not pearled at top) are made of same quality of glass, and have etched near top "MACRETH & CO." in plain letters. These are for central draft and student lamps.

Do yourself the justice to examine your next purchase and take no substitute for "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass" chimneys.

Pittsburgh, Pa. GEO. A. MACRETH & CO.

YOUR COUGH

Has not yielded to the various remedies you have been taking. It troubles you day and night, breaks your rest and reduces your strength. Now try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, before the bronchial tubes become enlarged or the delicate tissues of the lungs sustain fatal injury. As an anodyne and expectorant, this preparation has no equal. It soothes the irritated membrane, promotes expectoration, and induces repose. The worst cough by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Dr. J. G. Gordon, Carroll Co., Va., writes: "I use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and pronounce it to be unequalled as a remedy for colds and coughs."

Can Be Cured

"After the gripe—cough. This was my experience—a hacking, dry cough, with an incessant tickling in the throat, keeping me awake nights, and disturbing the household. I tried a great number of 'cough-cures', but they gave me only temporary relief. At last I concluded to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had used half a bottle I had my first all-night sleep. I continued to improve, and now consider myself cured."—A. A. Sherman, Coeymans, N. Y.

By Using

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, many have been saved from fatal illness.

E. D. Estabrooks, Canterbury, N. B., says: "In the winter of 1889 I was a surveyor of lumber in Sacramento, Cal. Being considerably exposed, I took a bad cold accompanied with a terrible cough. I tried several remedies, but they failed to cure me, and it was thought I was going into a decline. On the advice of a friend, I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and less than half a bottle completely cured me."

Dr. G. C. Osgood,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
